Cause No. 24S-MS-1

Order Amending Rules of Appellate Procedure

The Supreme Court's Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure has proposed an amendment to Appellate Rule 11. The proposed amendment would require a court reporter to serve a copy of a motion for extension of time to file the transcript on the trial judge in addition to the parties to the appeal and would require the appellant to serve a motion to compel on the trial judge and parties to the appeal.

The Court has considered this proposed amendment. Under this Court's authority to establish procedures and supervise the administration of all courts in the state, Appellate Rule 11 is amended as set forth in Exhibit A to this order (deletions shown by ~~strikethrough~~ and new text shown by underlining).

The amendment is effective January 1, 2025.

Done at Indianapolis, Indiana, on 10/18/2024.

Rule 11. Duties Of Court Reporter

C. Extension of Time to File Transcript. If the Court Reporter believes the Transcript cannot be filed within the time period prescribed by this rule, then the Court Reporter mustshalt promptly move the Court on Appeal designated in the Notice of Appeal for an extension of time to file the Transcript pursuant to Rule 35 (A) and mustshalt state in such motion the factual basis for inability to comply with the prescribed deadline despite exercise of due diligence. (See Form # App.R. 11-2). The Court Reporter mustshalt serve a copy of the motion on the trial judge and the parties to the appeal in accordance with Rule 24. Motions for extension of time in interlocutory appeals, appeals involving worker's compensation, issues of child custody, support, visitation, paternity, adoption, determination that a child is in need of services, and termination of parental rights are disfavored and mustshalt be granted only in extraordinary circumstances.

D. Failure to Complete Transcript. If the Court Reporter fails to file the Transcript with the trial court clerk within the time allowed, the appellant mustshalt seek an order from the Court on Appeal compelling the Court Reporter to do so. The motion to compel mustshalt be verified and affirmatively state that the motion was served on the Court Reporter and that the appellant has complied with the agreement for payment made in accordance with Rule 9(H). The motion to compel must be served on the trial judge and parties to the appeal. Failure of appellant to seek such an order not later than seven (~~7~~) days after the Transcript was due to have been filed with the trial court clerk mustshalt subject the appeal to dismissal.
